Re: WOMEN IN THE GREEN COLLAR ECONOMY

Dear Ms Seaver:

Congratulations! The Las Vegas Green Chamber of Commerce has selected you as an honoree of the 2011 Women In the Green Collar Economy. This recognition is extended to women During Women's History Month, within our community who have made significant strides in the Green Economy.

You have been at the forefront of the toner remanufacturing industry for the past three decades. Since becoming president, you have turned Tangerine into a "Green Machine"! Last year Tangerine recycled over 175,000 lbs. of corrugate and toner cartridges and implemented a "Green" office supply catalog with over 5,000 items.

Your involvement in the community as member of the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce Green Counsel and Leadership Las Vegas, are additional examples of your continued dedication to the community. Therefore, it is a honor and privilege to recognize you as a 2011 Woman in the Green Collar Economy recipient.

Please join us and the other honorees, as our guest at the March 15, 2011, Las Vegas Green Chamber of Commerce Luncheon, 11:30 a.m. Greenspun Auditorium (Lobby Area), 4505 Maryland Parkway, Las Vegas, Nevada 89154.
